Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On January 27, 2012, representatives of Hecla Mining Company (“Hecla”) are scheduled to make presentations in Toronto, Canada to institutional sales brokers and an analyst with UBS Securities, and subsequently to (i) analysts from each of Scotia Capital, BMO Capital Markets, CIBC (Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce), and RBC (Royal Bank of Canada), also in Toronto, and (ii) investors in Europe. At these meetings, Phillips S. Baker, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer of Hecla, will discuss the information included in the presentation materials attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report. As part of this presentation, Hecla will, among other things, provide updates - as contained in Exhibit 99.1 - to its prior public disclosures in light of Hecla’s January 11, 2012 news release and related Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on the same day. The January 11 press release and related Form 8-K disclosed that (i) the Mine Safety and Health Administration (“MSHA”) has ordered the Silver Shaft at the Lucky Friday mine in Mullan, Idaho closed for removal of built-up material in the shaft, (ii) other than work required under the MSHA order, all significant activities at the mine, including construction of the #4 Shaft and bypass around the previous rock burst, are on hold, and (iii) production at the mine is expected to resume in early 2013.

The information, including the exhibit attached hereto, in this Current Report is being furnished and shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section. The information in this Current Report shall not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement or other document pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except as otherwise stated in such filing.
