Special Shareholder Meeting to Approve Protective Charter Amendment

On August 20, 2018, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Ocwen Financial Corporation (the “Company” or “we”) approved convening a special meeting of the Company’s shareholders (the “2018 Special Meeting of Shareholders”) for the purpose of seeking shareholder approval of an amendment (the “Protective Amendment”) to the Company’s Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation to protect certain tax assets of the Company. As previously described in the Company’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), the Company has deferred tax assets in the U.S. and U.S. Virgin Islands jurisdictions in the form of net operating loss (“NOL”) carryforwards. As of June 30, 2018, the Company had NOL carryforwards of approximately $400 million, which the Company estimated to be worth approximately $60 million in potential tax savings under assumptions related to Ocwen’s various relevant jurisdictional tax rates (which assumptions reflect a significant degree of uncertainty). At each reporting date, the Company conducts periodic evaluations to assess positive and negative evidence to determine whether it is more likely than not that deferred tax assets can be realized in future periods. As a result of these evaluations, we recognized a full valuation allowance on our U.S. and U.S. Virgin Islands deferred tax assets, which we intend to maintain until there is sufficient positive evidence to support the reversal of all or some portion of these allowances.

The Company’s ability to utilize these tax assets to offset future taxable income may be significantly limited if the Company experiences an “ownership change” as defined in Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). The Company is presently evaluating whether it has experienced such an ownership change. To help protect the Company against a potential future ownership change, the Protective Amendment will void certain transfers of our common stock that would result in new holders of 5% or more of our outstanding common stock, as well as increased ownership of our common stock by existing 5% holders. Our Board would retain discretion to allow certain transfers that would not result in an ownership change under Section 382 of the Code, that would occur in connection with an acquisition or other strategic transaction, or that would otherwise be in the best interest of the Company. The Protective Amendment provides that it will expire after a period of two years from implementation, after which time the transfer restrictions will no longer be in effect.

The 2018 Special Meeting of Shareholders is expected to take place in November 2018. The Company will file a proxy statement with the SEC which will provide additional details relating to the Protective Amendment and the 2018 Special Meeting of Shareholders. The proxy statement will also be mailed to all shareholders of record as of the record date for the 2018 Special Meeting of Shareholders.

Resolution of Ginnie Mae Matter

In early August, the Company was formally notified by the Government National Mortgage Association (Ginnie Mae) that on the basis of information Ocwen provided to Ginnie Mae relating to its resolutions of the state cease and desist orders issued on or shortly after April 20, 2017, Ginnie Mae considers the matters cited in Ocwen's previously disclosed July 2017 letter to Ocwen to be resolved.

Ginnie Mae's letter constitutes the formal letter previewed in Ocwen's Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2018. The letter requires that Ocwen provide certain information and certifications to Ginnie Mae until such time as all conditions of Ocwen's settlements with state regulators have been fully satisfied, as well as continued compliance with all of Ginnie Mae's other requirements.
