FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RIVIERA HOLDINGS SIGNS FINANCING COMMITMENT

LAS VEGAS, NV (April 30, 2007) - Riviera Holdings Corporation (AMEX: RIV) today announced that it has obtained a commitment from Wachovia Bank, National Association to use its best efforts to market and syndicate up to $245 million of senior secured credit facilities, to be comprised of a new $20 million five year revolving credit facility and a new $225 million seven year term loan facility.

If Riviera obtains these senior secured credit facilities ("the facilities"), it intends to use the proceeds for, among other purposes, the refinancing of its 11% Senior Secured Notes due June 15, 2010 in the original principal amount of $215 million.

Substantially all of the outstanding principal amount of the term loan would mature in the seventh year of the term. Riviera would be permitted to prepay the facilities without premium or penalties, subject to any arrangements Riviera may enter into related to any LIBOR based loan.

"The new Senior Credit Facilities will reduce interest costs and provide greater financial flexibility to the Company," commented William Westerman, Chairman and CEO of Riviera Holdings Corporation.

Interest on loans under the facilities would bear interest at a rate dependent in large part upon the rating received from the rating agencies.

The facilities would be guaranteed by all of Riviera's active subsidiaries and would be secured by the stock of those subsidiaries and all or substantially all of the assets of Riviera and its subsidiaries.

Wachovia's commitment to use its best efforts to secure commitments from other lenders for the facilities is subject to various conditions precedent, including satisfactory completion of due diligence reviews, completion of a definitive credit agreement with Riviera and related documentation for the facilities (which will contain, among other things, representations, warranties, covenants and events of default customarily found in similar financings) and the absence of material adverse changes on Riviera's part.

Forward-Looking Statements

This report contains "forward-looking statements," as defined in Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). Forward-looking statements include the words "may," "would," "could," "likely," "estimate," "intend," "plan," "continue," "believe," "expect," "projections" or "anticipate" and similar words and include all discussions about the facilities, including whether Riviera will in fact obtain the facilities and, if so, what the definitive terms and conditions of the facilities will be. Riviera does not guarantee that it will obtain the facilities nor does it guarantee what the definitive terms and conditions of the facilities would be or how favorable they would be to Riviera. Although Riviera believes that its forward-looking statements are reasonable at the present time, Riviera may not achieve its plans, objectives and expectations or Riviera may modify them. You should read this report completely and with the understanding that Riviera's actual results may be materially different from what Riviera expects. Riviera does not plan to update forward-looking statements even though its situation or plans may change in the future, unless applicable law requires Riviera to do so.
