ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

On December 20, 2002, Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. ("Bear Stearns"), a subsidiary of The Bear Stearns Companies Inc., reached an agreement in principle with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; the National Association of Securities Dealers; the New York Stock Exchange; the Offices of the Attorneys General of New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Vermont, and Hawaii; and the North American Securities Administrators Association to resolve their investigations of Bear Stearns relating to research analyst independence. Pursuant to the agreement in principle, Bear Stearns agreed, among other things, to: (i) pay $50 million in retrospective relief; (ii) adopt internal structural and operational reforms that will further augment the steps it has already taken to ensure research analyst independence and promote investor confidence; (iii) contribute $25 million spread over five years to provide independent, third-party research to clients; (iv) contribute $5 million for investor education programs; and (v) in connection with the agreement in principle, adopt
