NUVEEN CLOSED-END FUNDS PRODUCT UPDATE
SEPTEMBER 2011

Portfolio Repositioning of Nuveen Multi-Strategy
Income and Growth Fund 2 (JQC)

On August 22, 2011, Nuveen announced that the Board of Trustees for Nuveen closed-end funds had approved repositioning the portfolio of the Nuveen Multi-Strategy Income and Growth Fund 2 (JQC).

In the very near future, your clients in this fund will be receiving proxy materials. In advance of this, we hope the summary of the proposed repositioning along with links to frequently asked questions and copies of the proxy materials will help you address any questions regarding this proposal.

A special shareholder meeting for the fund is scheduled for November 18, 2011 to seek approval for those elements of the repositioning plan which require shareholder approval. The fund has engaged a proxy solicitation firm Computershare Fund Services to assist in gathering the necessary votes in a timely manner. If enough shareholders do not cast their votes, the fund may not be able to hold its meeting, and will be required to incur additional solicitation costs in order to obtain sufficient shareholder participation. To reduce expense, and minimize phone calls to shareholders from the proxy solicitor, please urge your clients to vote as soon as possible.

An investment in common shares is subject to investment risk, including the possible loss of the entire principal amount that you invest. Your common shares at any point in time may be worth less than your original investment, even after taking into account the reinvestment of Fund dividends and distributions. Investment risks currently specific to JQC include call risk or prepayment risk; common stock risk; issuer credit risk; interest rate risk; non-U.S. securities risk; preferred stock risk. Closed-end fund shares frequently trade at a discount to their net asset value. This information does not constitute an offer for sale of any securities. A proxy statement related to the proposed repositioning will contain important information regarding the repositioning. Shareholders and their financial advisors are urged to read the Proxy Statement carefully. Investors should carefully consider their investment objectives, risk tolerance, liquidity needs and tax liabilities before investing. There can be no assurance that the fund will achieve its investment objectives.
