FIFTH SUPPLEMENT TO PROXY STATEMENT
$8.25 PER SHARE UNDER
HARBINGER CAPITAL PARTNERS MERGER AGREEMENT
SPECIAL MEETING ADJOURNED UNTIL JANUARY 23, 2007

Dear Fellow Shareholder:

January 17, 2007

On or about December 6, 2006, we mailed to you a definitive proxy statement relating to a special meeting of our shareholders for the purpose of considering and voting on a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 19, 2006, among Applica and APN Holding Company, Inc. and APN Mergersub, Inc. (which are subsidiaries of Harbinger Capital Partners Master Fund I, Ltd. and Harbinger Capital Partners Special Situations Fund, L.P., and which we refer to, along with such funds, as Harbinger), pursuant to which, among other things, upon the merger becoming effective, each outstanding share of Applica common stock, par value $0.10 per share (other than shares owned by Applica or Harbinger), would be converted into the right to receive $6.00 in cash, without interest, and Applica would become an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Harbinger funds.

On December 14, 2006, the parties to the merger agreement amended the original merger agreement to provide for an increase of $0.50 in cash per share over the $6.00 in cash per share provided for in the original merger agreement. On December 22, 2006, the parties to the merger agreement amended the original merger agreement for a second time to provide for an additional increase of $0.50 in cash per share over the $6.50 in cash per share provided in the amended merger agreement. On December 27, 2006, the parties to the merger agreement amended the original merger agreement for a third time to provide for an additional increase of $0.50 in cash per share over the $7.00 in cash per share provided in the amended merger agreement. On January 3, 2007, the parties to the merger agreement amended the original merger agreement for a fourth time to provide for an additional increase of $0.25 in cash per share over the $7.50 in cash per share provided in the amended merger agreement.

On January 16, 2007, the parties to the merger agreement amended the original merger agreement for a fifth time to provide for an additional increase of $0.50 in cash per share over the $7.75 in cash per share provided in the amended merger agreement, such that upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of our common stock (other than shares owned by Applica or Harbinger) will be converted into the right to receive $8.25 in cash, without interest. The original merger agreement as so amended is referred to as the amended merger agreement. The fifth amendment to the merger agreement is attached to the attached proxy supplement as Annex A.

The fifth amendment followed an increase to $8.05 per share of the price of the unsolicited tender offer to purchase all outstanding shares of our common stock that was commenced by Apex Acquisition Corporation, a newly formed Florida corporation and an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of NACCO Industries, Inc.

The attached proxy supplement contains additional information about the amended merger agreement. We urge you to read this document carefully and in its entirety. We also encourage you, if you have not done so already, to review the definitive proxy statement and the previous proxy supplements thereto. You should consider the matters discussed under Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements on page 2 of the attached proxy supplement before voting. You may also obtain additional information from documents we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Applica convened the special meeting at 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 17, 2007, as scheduled, and adjourned the special meeting until 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 23, 2007, without a vote on any proposal other than an adjournment. The proposals to be considered at the special meeting will be submitted to a vote of Applica's shareholders at the reconvened meeting at 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 23, 2007. Shareholders may submit their proxies to vote their shares on the proposals until 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 23, 2007.

Table of Contents

The record date for the special meeting on January 17, 2007 did not change and the record date will remain the same for the reconvened meeting on January 23, 2007. Only holders of our common stock at the close of business on November 27, 2006 are entitled to notice of the reconvened meeting and to vote at the reconvened meeting, except that shares of our common stock that are beneficially owned by Harbinger are not eligible or entitled to vote at the reconvened meeting. All shareholders of record are cordially invited to attend the reconvened meeting in person.

Your vote is very important, regardless of the number of shares of our common stock that you own. The merger cannot be completed unless the adoption of the amended merger agreement is approved by holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote. If you do not vote, it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger.

Whether or not you plan to attend the reconvened meeting in person, please complete, sign, date and return promptly the proxy card enclosed with the definitive proxy statement. If you have already submitted a proxy, you do not need to submit another proxy unless you wish to change your vote. If you hold shares through a broker or other nominee, you should follow the procedures provided by your broker or nominee. These actions will not limit your right to vote in person if you wish to attend the reconvened meeting and vote in person.

After careful consideration, our board of directors approved the amended merger agreement and the merger and declared that the amended merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the amended merger agreement, including the merger, are advisable for, fair to and in the best interest of Applica shareholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT, AS AMENDED.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation and continued support.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

/s/ Harry D. Schulman
Harry D. Schulman
Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities regulatory agency has approved or disapproved the merger, passed upon the merits or fairness of the merger or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of the disclosure in this document. This supplement is dated January 17, 2007 and will be mailed to Applica's shareholders on or about January 18, 2007.

UPDATE TO SUMMARY

This update to the summary, together with the following updated question and answer section, highlights important information discussed in more detail elsewhere in this supplement and in the definitive proxy statement. This updated summary does not contain all of the information you should consider before voting on the amended merger agreement and the merger. To understand the merger more fully, you are urged to read carefully this entire supplement and the fifth amendment to the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this supplement, the definitive proxy statement and all of its annexes before voting on whether to approve the amended merger agreement and the merger. The amended merger agreement is the legal document that governs the merger.

Purpose of the Meeting

You will be asked to consider and vote on a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 19, 2006, among Applica and Buyer and Merger Co (which are subsidiaries of the Harbinger Funds), as amended by Amendment No. 1 to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 14, 2006, Amendment No. 2 to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 22, 2006, Amendment No. 3 to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 27, 2006, Amendment No. 4 to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 3, 2007 and Amendment No. 5 to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 16, 2007 among Applica and Buyer and Merger Co, pursuant to which, upon the merger becoming effective, each outstanding share of Applica common stock, par value $0.10 per share (other than shares owned by Applica or Harbinger), will be converted into the right to receive $8.25 in cash, without interest.

Required Vote

Under Florida law, the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting is necessary to adopt the amended merger agreement. Thus, the affirmative vote of holders of common stock representing at least 7,585,151 votes will be required to approve the merger. A failure to vote your shares of our common stock or an abstention will have the same effect as voting against the merger.

Shares of our common stock that are beneficially owned by Harbinger are not eligible or entitled to vote on the merger agreement or the merger at the special meeting.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

After careful consideration, our board of directors approved the amended merger agreement and the merger and declared that the amended merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the amended merger agreement, including the merger, are advisable for, fair to and in the best interest of Applica's shareholders. ACCORDINGLY, OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT, AS AMENDED.

THE MERGER

Update to Background of the Merger

The discussion below supplements the description in the definitive proxy statement of the background of the merger.

On January 9, 2007, NACCO publicly announced that it had increased the per share offer price of the NACCO offer to $7.90, net to the seller in cash, without interest, and amended the Schedule TO accordingly. In accordance with the terms of the Harbinger merger agreement, we promptly notified Harbinger on January 9, 2007 of NACCO's amended offer price.

On January 9, 2007, our board held a meeting and discussed the offers from NACCO and Harbinger and its obligations under the Harbinger merger agreement. The meeting was attended by our senior management and legal and financial advisors, as well as a representative of our board's independent legal counsel. At the meeting, our board also discussed with the legal advisors the provisions of the Harbinger merger agreement relating to competing transactions.

During the evening of January 9, 2007, we sent NACCO a letter reiterating the board's determination that NACCO's offer, as currently structured, fails to provide sufficient certainty of completion and demanding that NACCO inform the board not later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 11, 2007, whether it is willing to amend its offer to remedy these concerns. During the evening on January 9, 2007, we notified Harbinger's legal advisor in writing that our board had taken these steps.

We convened the special meeting at 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 10, 2007, as previously scheduled, and adjourned the special meeting until 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on Wednesday, January 17, 2007, without a vote on any proposal other than an adjournment.

On January 11, 2007, NACCO sent us a letter responding to the letter we sent NACCO on January 9, 2007 (the NACCO Response Letter).

During the morning of January 12, 2007, our board held a meeting and discussed the NACCO Response Letter, the offers from NACCO and Harbinger and our obligations under the Harbinger merger agreement. The meeting was attended by our senior management and legal and financial advisors, as well as a representative of our board's independent legal counsel. Our board reviewed and discussed the NACCO Response Letter and concluded that, although such letter addressed certain of our board's concerns regarding a lack of certainty that NACCO's revised offer would be consummated, it did not go far enough to remedy such concerns. The morning meeting was adjourned to allow management and counsel to discuss with Harbinger's counsel certain aspects of the Harbinger merger agreement. Following such discussions, our board meeting reconvened during the afternoon of January 12, 2007 to further discuss the offers from NACCO and Harbinger with management and the legal and financial advisors. Our board determined to recommend that our shareholders reject the revised NACCO offer and not tender their shares in the revised NACCO offer.

On January 16, 2007, NACCO publicly announced that it had increased the per share offer price of the NACCO offer to $8.05, net to the seller in cash, without interest, and amended the Schedule TO accordingly. In accordance with the terms of the Harbinger merger agreement, we promptly notified Harbinger on January 16, 2007 of NACCO's amended offer price.

Subsequently, on January 16, 2007, Harbinger submitted to us a definitive binding offer to enter into an amendment to its merger agreement which (i) increases the merger consideration payable for all outstanding shares of Applica that it does not currently own to $8.25 per share in cash, without interest, and (ii) requires Applica to convene the special meeting at 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 17, 2007, as scheduled, and adjourn the special meeting until 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 23, 2007, without a vote on any proposal other than an adjournment. In consideration of the increase in the per share merger consideration, Applica acceded to Harbinger's demand for increases in the termination fee payable by Applica if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances to $7 million and Applica's corresponding expense reimbursement obligation to up to $3.3 million.

Table of Contents

On January 16, 2007, our board held a meeting and discussed the offers from NACCO and Harbinger and its obligations under the Harbinger merger agreement. The meeting was attended by our senior management and legal and financial advisors, as well as a representative of our board's independent legal counsel. Our board reviewed and discussed the amended offer from NACCO and the proposed amendment to the Harbinger merger agreement with management and the legal and financial advisors and determined that the Harbinger merger agreement, as proposed to be amended, is more favorable to our shareholders than the amended offer made by NACCO. After lengthy discussions and a thorough review with management and the legal and financial advisors, our board also determined (i) that the merger agreement, as proposed to be amended, is advisable for, fair to and in the best interests of our shareholders (other than Harbinger and its affiliates) and voted to approve and adopt, and authorized senior management to enter into, the amendment proposed by Harbinger and (ii) to recommend that our shareholders (A) vote FOR the adoption of the Harbinger merger agreement, as proposed to be amended, and (B) reject the NACCO offer and not tender their shares in the NACCO offer.

On January 16, 2007, we executed Amendment No. 5 to the Agreement and Plan of Merger with Harbinger, as amended, and thereafter on January 17, 2007, issued a press release announcing the amendment.

We convened the special meeting at 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 17, 2007, as originally scheduled, and adjourned the special meeting until 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 23, 2007, without a vote on any proposal other than an adjournment. The proposals to be considered at the special meeting will be submitted to a vote of our shareholders at the reconvened meeting at 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 23, 2007.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

After careful consideration, the board of directors approved the amended merger agreement and the merger. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT OUR SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT, AS AMENDED.

The board of directors also recommends that, even if a shareholder does not vote with respect to the amended merger agreement at this time, that such shareholder vote FOR the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting of shareholders, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient shares present or represented at the meeting to constitute a quorum or insufficient votes at the time of the meeting to adopt the amended merger agreement or because the board, in its judgment, determines that an adjournment is required by law or is otherwise in the best interests of us and our shareholders. The ability to adjourn or postpone the special meeting will give the board of directors the flexibility to preserve the existing transaction with Harbinger should the vote not be obtained by January 23, 2007.

Table of ContentsSUMMARY OF THE FIFTH AMENDMENT TO THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following discussion summarizes the material provisions of the fifth amendment to the merger agreement and is qualified by reference to the fifth amendment, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this supplement and is incorporated by reference into this supplement. The rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms and conditions of the merger agreement (which is included as Annex A to the definitive proxy statement), as well as the first, second, third, fourth and fifth amendments thereto, and not by this summary or any other information contained in this supplement. We urge you to read the merger agreement and the first, second, third, fourth and fifth amendments carefully and in their entirety, as well as the definitive proxy statement, the first, second, third and fourth supplements and this supplement and the Schedule 14d-9 recommendation statement, as amended, before making any decisions regarding the merger.

On January 16, 2007, Applica and Buyer and Merger Co (which are subsidiaries of the Harbinger Funds) entered into a fifth amendment to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 19, 2006, as amended on December 14, 2006, on December 22, 2006, on December 27, 2006, and January 3, 2007. A complete copy of the fifth amendment is included as Annex A to this supplement and is incorporated by reference into this discussion. The following discussion summarizes the material changes to the merger agreement made by the fifth amendment.

Increase in Merger Consideration

The fifth amendment to the amended merger agreement provides for an additional $0.50 per share increase in the cash consideration to be received by our shareholders in the merger, from $7.75 to $8.25 in cash, without interest, for each share of our common stock outstanding (other than shares owned by Applica or Harbinger).

Increase in Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement

As a condition to Harbinger's agreement to increase the per share purchase price described above, we agreed to amend the merger agreement to increase the termination fee and the expense reimbursement obligation. Accordingly, the fifth amendment to the amended merger agreement provides for an increase to $7 million of the termination fee and an increase up to $3.3 million of the expense reimbursement obligation.

Adjournment of Special Meeting

In the fifth amendment to the amended merger agreement, Applica covenanted to convene the special meeting as scheduled at 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 17, 2007. Applica further covenanted that immediately thereafter, an officer of Applica would make a motion to adjourn the January 17 meeting until 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 23, 2007 and, subject to obtaining the requisite vote therefor, the January 17 meeting would be immediately adjourned until the January 23 meeting, which January 23 meeting would have the same record date as the January 17 meeting, and no further action would be taken at the January 17 meeting. Applica complied with these covenants and convened the special meeting at 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 17, 2007, as scheduled, and adjourned the special meeting until 11:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 23, 2007, without a vote on any proposal other than an adjournment, and the record date will remain the same for the reconvened meeting on January 23, 2007.

Q: Who can vote at the reconvened meeting?

A: The record date has not changed. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on November 27, 2006, the record date will be entitled to vote at the reconvened meeting, except that shares of our common stock that are beneficially owned by Harbinger are not eligible or entitled to vote at the reconvened meeting.

Q: What if I already voted using the proxy you sent me earlier?

A: First, carefully read and consider the information contained in this supplement. If you have already delivered a properly executed proxy, you will be considered to have voted on the amended merger agreement, and you do not need to do anything unless you wish to change your vote.

Q Can I change my vote after I have mailed in my proxy card?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before we vote your proxy at the special meeting. You can do so by:

delivering a written notice to the corporate secretary of Applica before the special meeting that states that you revoke your proxy;

delivering a signed and later dated new proxy card before the special meeting in accordance with the instructions included with the proxy card; or attending the special meeting and voting in person.

Simply attending the special meeting will not revoke your proxy. If your shares are held in street name by your broker, bank, dealer or other nominee, you must follow instructions received from such broker, bank or nominee with this supplement or the definitive proxy statement in order to revoke your vote or to vote at the special meeting.

Q: What do I do if I have not voted yet?

A: After carefully reading and considering the information contained in this supplement and the definitive proxy statement, please complete, sign and date your proxy and return it in the postage-paid return envelope enclosed with the definitive proxy statement as soon as possible, so that your shares may be represented at the special meeting. If you sign and send in your proxy and do not indicate how you want to vote, we will vote your proxy in favor of approval of the fifth amended merger agreement. Because the required vote of our shareholders is based upon the number of outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, rather than upon the shares actually voted, the failure by the holder of any such shares to submit a proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting, including abstentions and broker non-votes, will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the fifth amended merger agreement.

Q: What is the status of NACCO's offer?

A: Please read the section entitled Background of the Merger on pages 19-28 of the definitive proxy statement, and Update to the Background of the Merger on page 3 of the first supplement thereto, pages 3 and 4 of the second supplement thereto, page 4 of the third supplement thereto and page 5 of the fourth supplement thereto, for a summary of our prior dealings with the NACCO Industries, Inc. On January 9, 2007, NACCO publicly announced that it had increased the per share offer price of its tender offer to $7.90. On January 9, 2007, the Applica board held a meeting and discussed the offers from NACCO and Harbinger and its obligations under the Harbinger merger agreement. During the evening of January 9, 2007, Applica sent NACCO a letter reiterating the board's determination that NACCO's offer, as currently structured, fails to provide sufficient certainty of completion and demanding that NACCO inform the board not later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on January 11, 2007, whether it is willing to amend its offer to remedy these concerns. During the evening on January 9, 2007, Applica notified Harbinger's legal advisor in writing that the Applica board had taken these steps. On January 11, 2007, NACCO sent Applica a letter responding to the letter Applica sent NACCO on January 9, 2007.

During the morning of January 12, 2007, the Applica board held a meeting and discussed NACCO's response letter and concluded that although such letter addressed certain of the Applica's board concerns regarding closing certainty, it did not go far enough to remedy such concerns. Following such discussions, the Applica board meeting reconvened during the afternoon of January 12, 2007 to further discuss the offers from NACCO and Harbinger with management and the legal and financial advisors. The Applica board determined to recommend that Applica's shareholders reject the revised NACCO offer and not tender their shares in the revised NACCO offer.

Harbinger and its affiliates) and voted to approve and adopt, and authorized senior management to enter into, the fifth amendment proposed by Harbinger. In addition, our board determined at such meeting to recommend that our shareholders reject the NACCO offer and not tender their shares in the NACCO offer.

UPDATE TO INTERESTS OF OUR DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS IN THE MERGER

In considering the recommendation of the board to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, our shareholders should be aware that members of the board of directors and certain of our executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of Applica shareholders generally and that may create potential conflicts of interest. During its deliberations in determining to recommend to its shareholders that they vote in favor of the merger proposal, the board was aware of these interests. This section updates certain information contained in the definitive proxy statement regarding the interests of our directors and executive officers in the merger to reflect the revised per share purchase price set forth in the amended merger agreement. Otherwise the information in the definitive proxy statement under the heading Interests of our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger remains unchanged. Please refer to the more detailed information regarding such interests contained in the definitive proxy statement.

Treatment of Stock Options

As of the record date, there were 772,000 shares of our common stock subject to outstanding stock options granted under our equity incentive plans to our current executive officers and directors with a per share exercise price of less than $8.25. As of the effective time of the merger, all options to acquire Applica common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, whether or not then exercisable or vested, shall become:

fully exercisable and vested; and shall be cancelled, retired and extinguished and shall no longer be outstanding following the effective time of the merger.

In the merger, each director and executive officer holding stock options that have an exercise price of less than $8.25 per share will receive an amount in cash, without interest, less any required withholding taxes, equal to the excess of $8.25 over the applicable per share exercise price for each stock option held, multiplied by the aggregate number of shares of our common stock into which the applicable stock option was exercisable immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. Options with a per share exercise price equal to or in excess of $8.25 will be terminated and cancelled without any consideration therefore if not exercised prior to the effective time of the merger.
