Exelon Corporation Discloses Exposure to Enron

Chicago (November 28, 2001) -- Exelon Power Team's direct net exposure to Enron, based on our current book of business and existing market prices, is less than $10 million. The current direct gross exposure (i.e., for current energy sales from Exelon to Enron) is less than $20 million. Exelon continues to closely monitor the situation and carefully consider all our legal rights and obligations. We are not engaged in any new trading activity with Enron.

###

Exelon Corporation is one of the nation's largest electric utilities with approximately five million customers and more than $15 billion in annual revenues. The company has one of the industry's largest portfolios of electricity generation capacity, with a nationwide reach and strong positions in the Midwest and Mid-Atlantic. Exelon distributes electricity to approximately five million customers in Illinois and Pennsylvania and gas to 425,000 customers in the Philadelphia area. The company also has holdings in such competitive businesses as energy, infrastructure services and energy services. Exelon is headquartered in Chicago and trades on the NYSE under the ticker EXC.
